Manufacturer: Andree Jardin

£6.50

DESCRIPTION

Dishwashing Brush by Andrée Jardin.

The Andrée Jardin Dishwashing Brush is made from natural materials, making it a great eco-friendly option for your kitchen cleaning kit. Meticulously crafted in France from beech wood and rigid plant fibres, the brush is gentle and naturally abrasive, meaning it will effectively clean without creating any damage or scratches.

The brush head can be easily replaced by pushing out the wooden brush from its wire frame when it becomes dirty.

The respected French brand's commitment to quality and sustainability is evident in its materials and manufacturing process. Their brushes are produced in small batches using natural hog bristles and wood from sustainably handled forests; this ensures the high-quality products produce minimal waste while maintaining a low environmental impact.
