Introducing the Topan pendant, designed in 1959, marking Verner Panton's second design and his inaugural venture into mass production of lamps, which paved the way for the iconic Flowerpot series. Its sculptural form not only offers brilliant illumination but also serves as a captivating decorative piece, be it as a solitary installation or in clusters, infusing interiors with a specific ambience.

The Topan pendant is available in the contemporary Vermillion Red shade and the versatile Grey Beige tone, providing even more options to complement your space.

DIMENSIONS

21dia x 19cmh, 0.65kg
