DESCRIPTION

Pavilion Stool | AV36 by Anderssen + Voll for &Tradition.

Five years after it first launched, Anderssen + Voll have expanded on their Pavilion Collection. Designed in honour of the Langellini Pavilion in Copenhagen, a modernist structure designed by architects Eva and Niels Koppel in 1958, the collection captures the minimalist essence of the movement.

Andersson and Voll adapted the features from their original designs in the stool, maintaining the bent veneer seat as the focal point of the design. It has an airy quality and can be stacked up to ten, making it ideal for smaller spaces.
