DESCRIPTION

Inland Lounge Chair AV21 by Anderssen & Voll for &Tradition.

The Inland AV21 Lounge Chair harmoniously blends clean lines and understated curves, gracefully balancing Italian sophistication and Scandinavian simplicity. Designed by Torbjørn Anderssen and Espen Voll, the Inland series presents an architectural foundation that places comfort at the forefront without sacrificing style. Originally introduced as a two and three-seater sofa, the Inland collection has now expanded to encompass a graceful lounge chair and a versatile pouf. Both of these additions uphold the original design's allure, featuring welcoming curves and a steel-based foundation that imparts a floating illusion.

The self-contained form of the Inland lounge chair pays homage to the timeless midcentury lounge pieces characteristic of Anderssen & Voll's native Norway. Simultaneously, the plush cushioned interior draws inspiration from the finesse of Italian craftsmanship. The culmination of these elements results in a chair that exudes elegance while inviting relaxation and contentment.

Whether adorning hotel lobbies, office spaces, or private residences, the Inland series assures an immediate sensation of cosiness and ease, regardless of the environment. This sense of comfort is attributed to the generous seating depth inherent in the Inland series. The lounge chair is available in an array of upholstery choices, ranging from classic leather and contemporary linen to the warm embrace of wool. The legs can be selected in a choice of warm black powder-coated steel or a newly introduced polished variation.
