DESCRIPTION

Inland Pouf AV32 by Anderssen & Voll for &Tradition.

The Inland Pouf seamlessly blends clean lines and subtle curves, exemplifying the collection's delicate balance between Italian flair and Scandinavian minimalism. Designed by the talented designers Torbjørn Anderssen and Espen Voll, the Inland series boasts an architectural framework that places comfort at the forefront without compromising on style. Originally introduced as a two and three-seater sofa, the Inland series has now expanded to include a sophisticated lounge chair and a versatile pouf, both echoing the original design with their inviting curves and steel-footed bases, which create a captivating floating effect.

The pouf introduces a new dimension to the Inland range, offering a place to recline and put your feet up. It can serve as an extension of the Inland sofa, functioning as a chaise lounge or as an additional seat whenever required. Moreover, the pouf's shape and size make it a practical alternative to a coffee table; simply add a tray on top for added functionality.

Whether gracing the halls of upscale hotels, enhancing office spaces, or complementing residential interiors, the Inland series guarantees an immediate sense of comfort and relaxation. The Inland pouf is available in a variety of upholstery options, ranging from classic leather and contemporary linen to cosy and inviting wool. Additionally, you can choose from warm black powder-coated steel legs or opt for the new polished variation to suit your aesthetic preferences.
