DESCRIPTION

Setago table light by Jamie Hayon for &tradition.

Seta, the Spanish word for mushroom, forms the first part of the name for this table light with a curved, soft outline. The second part of the name is Go, as this is a portable lamp without any electrical cord that can be moved freely around. A gold dimmer completes the design.

DIMENSIONS

18dia x 22cmh

MATERIALS

Made from moulded polycarbonate and brass, the Setago light is available in the colourways rust/thunder, nude/forest and twilight/sand.

Bulb: LED 225lm, 2800K.
Dimmable to three levels.
