DESCRIPTION

In Between Table SK13 by Sami Kallio for &Tradition.

Introducing the latest addition to the In Between collection, the SK13. This exquisite low table is meticulously handcrafted using premium FSC-certified wood, exuding an air of refined simplicity that enhances any living space. Available in three stunning finishes—black lacquered oak, oiled oak, and smoked oiled oak—the SK13 offers a diverse range of choices to suit your aesthetic preferences.

Blending the best of traditional and contemporary design, the In Between table draws inspiration from both stools and chairs within the collection. Its chamfered edge beautifully reflects the concept of negative space found in the seatback of the chairs and stools. Furthermore, the lathe-turned solid wood legs elegantly echo the shape of the seating's legs. The result is a table that emanates warmth and familiarity, seamlessly integrating into modern homes, and becoming an indispensable part of everyday life.

The table is also available in other sizes, ensuring versatility to suit various living spaces. To create the ultimate harmonious environment, consider combining the table with the rest of the In Between collection. Explore the product range section below for the complete collection.
