DESCRIPTION

In Between Table SK14 by Sami Kallio for &Tradition.

Introducing the latest addition to the In Between collection, the SK14. This exquisite low table has been meticulously handcrafted using premium FSC-certified wood, adding an element of refined simplicity to your living space. Choose from three stunning finishes: black lacquered oak, oiled oak, and smoked oiled oak.

Blending traditional and contemporary design elements, the In Between table draws inspiration from the range's stools and chairs, cleverly incorporating their features. The chamfered edge reflects the concept of negative space found in the seatback, while the lathe-turned solid wood legs mirror the shape of the seating's legs. The result is a table that exudes warmth and familiarity, seamlessly integrating into modern homes and becoming an essential part of everyday life.

In addition to its standard size, the table is also available in other sizes to suit your needs. Combine it with other pieces from the In Between collection to craft the perfect living space. For the complete collection, please explore the product range section below.
