DESCRIPTION

In Between Table SK15 by Sami Kallio for &Tradition.

Introducing the latest addition to the In Between collection, the SK15. This low table is meticulously handcrafting using premium FSC-certified wood, ensuring a touch of refined simplicity for your living space. Choose from three stunning finishes: black lacquered oak, oiled oak, and smoked oiled oak.

The In Between table seamlessly blends traditional and contemporary design elements, drawing inspiration from the range's chairs and stools. Its chamfered edge beautifully reflects the concept of negative space found in the seatback of the chair and stool, while the lathe-turned solid wood legs echo the shape of the seating's legs. The result is a table that exudes warmth and familiarity, effortlessly integrating into modern homes.

The table is also available in other sizes. Combine it with the rest of the In Between collection to curate the perfect living space. Please refer to the product range section below for the complete collection.
