DESCRIPTION

In Between Table by Sami Kallio for &Tradition.

Marrying traditional forms with contemporary manufacturing processes, the In Between range offers a unique chair, stool, and tables.

The In Between table adopts the same medley of traditional and modern inspiration as the stool and chairs. The chamfered edge of the table reflects the idea of negative space seen in the seatback of the chair and stool, whilst the lathe-turned solid wood legs share the shape of those on the seating. The resulting table is welcoming and familiar, designed to be integral to life in the modern home.
