DESCRIPTION

Delfino pouf by Erberto Carboni for Arflex.

First designed by Erberto Carboni in 1954, the Delfino armchair was, as its name suggests, inspired by the streamlined form of the dolphin. Its curvaceous form and fin-like arms clearly evoke those of its namesake, while capturing something of this creature's playful personality and characterful presence.

The Delfino pouf shares the curves and character of the Delfino armchair.
