

Fiorenza, 1952

Designer: Franco Albini

Manufacturer: Arflex

£3,523

DESCRIPTION

Fiorenza Armchair by Franco Albini for Arflex.

In a fifties' Pirelli advertisement the Fiorenza armchair, designed by Franco Albini in 1952, was used as an image of foam rubber's potential, which fits like a glove and at that time was the most technologically advanced material used in upholstered furniture.

DIMENSIONS

73w x 92d x 103/42cmh

MATERIALS

The Fiorenza armchair is built around a black lacquered beechwood or walnut frame. Upholstered in fabrics and leather of the collection.

Upholstery options:

T2: Cabas, Etoile

T3: Boucle, Cherie, Lama

T4: Hero 2, Mistral, Orbaco, Steelcut 3

T5: Bridge, Divina MD, Gamma, Vega

N: Gada

Super: Ametista, Perla

For images please see the downloadable PDF, or contact the shop or showroom to view samples.

HELP / ADVICE

Call: 0207 837 1900

Email: showroom@twentytwentyone.com