Introducing the Kori Pendant Light, a versatile lighting solution from the Kori Collection that features a unique 'basket' design to provide practical, attractive, and glare-free direct lighting onto surfaces below. This stunning pendant light also diffuses a wider cone of soft indirect light upwards, creating a warm and inviting ambience in any room.

Crafted to be small and elegant, the Kori Pendant Light is an ideal choice for illuminating small spaces such as hallways, serving as a compact accent light above sideboards or as a task light in series above kitchen counters.

To elevate its elegance further, the Kori Pendant Light can be paired with the Dune shade, making it a perfect fit for dining tables. The shade casts a glare-free light across a wider area, illuminating the surface below while gently diffusing an indirect light, turning your dining table into a sophisticated centrepiece.
