Snow A3 Drawers by Jonas Bohlin for Asplund.

In 1994, Jonas Bohlin and Thomas Sandell were tasked with designing functional and high-quality furniture for Forminord. They combined traditional Swedish design elements with a global perspective to create the Snow series, a collection of simple storage units featuring functional cutout handles and no additional ornamentation.

Over time, the Snow series has gained immense popularity in Sweden because of its exceptional quality, versatility, and distinctive appearance. The Snow range is still handcrafted in Tibro, a small town in southern Sweden renowned for its furniture-making expertise.

Snow A3 is a storage unit with three long drawers, making it ideal as a bedroom dresser.
