DESCRIPTION

Snow E Cabinet Glass Doors by Jonas Bohlin for Asplund.

In 1994, Jonas Bohlin and Thomas Sandell were tasked with creating functional and high-quality furniture for Forminord. Their solution was the Snow series, which blended traditional Swedish design with a global perspective.

Sharing the same design characteristics as the rest of the range, unembellished designs with cutout handles, the Snow E cabinet features two soft-closing doors, a middle partition, and four shelves to help you keep your belongings organised and your space clutter-free. The front doors have glass panels which make it easy to showcase your items in an organised manner.

Snow glass cabinets come with prepared holes for brasserie curtains on the inside of the doors as a tribute to the original design from 1994.

The series has gained immense popularity in Sweden due to its quality, versatility, and distinctive appearance. The Snow line is still made by hand in Tibro, a small town in southern Sweden known for its expertise in furniture-making.
