DESCRIPTION

Mini Stamped Mouse Pot by Stella Baggot for Atelier Stella

Stella Baggott creates stoneware ceramics with subtle personalities, each with unique impressed decorations and glazes. The pots and planters are entirely functional to carry flowers, herbs or succulents, as well as pencils, pens or kitchen utensils. The addition of vegetation adds even more character.

Atelier Stella ceramics are handmade using slab and pinch-pot techniques to create unique and characterful designs influenced by Swedish, Italian and Cornish pottery of the 1950s and 60s.

Bring subtle playfulness to any space with the mini mouse pot. Its endearingly oversized ears and neat nose are complimented by stamped detailing and finished in a white, glossy glaze.
