DESCRIPTION

Neroli and Petitgrain body cream by Austin Austin.

Austin Austin is a Norfolk-based, family-run company that uses the finest ingredients to produce simply luxurious and effective products for bath and body.

An ethical and environmentally aware approach underpins all that Austin Austin does: the range is certified as fully organic by the Soil Association and COSMOS, and is tested on people, not animals. With the exception of their body cream, all Austin Austin formulations are vegan.

Austin Austin's body washes, shampoos and body lotions are presented in elegantly minimal packaging illustrated with designs by artist Christian Newby.

DIMENSIONS

120ml jar.

MATERIALS

Product bottles are made from 100% recycled material and boxes from FSC-accredited sustainably managed forests, with all packaging fully recyclable.

Austin Austin Neroli and Petitgrain body cream are formulated with betaine to soothe, moisturise and protect the skin.

Top notes of orange and grapefruit blend with middle notes of neroli and cardamom and base notes of petitgrain and cedarwood for a warming and spicy fragrance that refreshes and restores.

This product is made without GM ingredients, SLS, silicones, parabens, mineral oils, artificial colours or fragrances and is certified Organic and vegetarian. Please note that this is the only Austin Austin formulation which is not certified vegan since it contains a small quantity of beeswax.
