

Capitol Complex Office Chair

Manufacturer: Cassina

£2,327

DESCRIPTION

Capitol Complex Office Chair by Cassina.

Part of the UNESCO World Heritage List in 2016 is Le Corbusier's Capitol Complex, created in Chandigarh in 1951, the architectural icon was designed in celebration of the independence of India.

Among the furniture used in the Legislative Assembly building, is this iconic chair, a homage to Pierre Jeanneret. The seating pieces constructed of solid wood feature sidebars in an inverted "V" shape supporting the armrests. The use of a woven backrest and seat, stretched across a wooden frame and uses of teak, are commonplace in the local area.

The chair is available in oak or walnut wood. The Capitol Complex office chair is available as a teak chair.
