DESCRIPTION

Hi Pad chair by Jasper Morrison for Cappellini.

A great example of mixing style with comfort, the padded Hi Pad chair's classic design works well in indoor spaces such as dining rooms or hallways. The chair can be upholstered in a range of fabrics and leather, making it easy to blend into any interior space.

Designed by the award-winning designer Jasper Morrison in 1999, the chairs embody the vital relationship between technology and artisan craftsmanship. The talents of expert upholsterers are integrated with ingenious modern techniques which allow the upholstery to attach flawlessly to the three-dimensional border of the padding.

The Hi Pad chair has received Greenguard Gold certification: a standard that guarantees maximum emissions control for products designed with the greatest attention to health and wellness.
