DESCRIPTION

Lochness table with writing desk by Piero Lissoni for Cappellini.

The Lochness range by the renowned Italian designer Piero Lissoni comprises a sideboard, a cabinet, a table and a writing desk designed in 2015. United by their metal frames and range of materials, the series was envisioned for use in the living room or commercial spaces.

The versatile desk, characterised by its continuous, linear form, is available in three sizes. Its utilitarian design features drawers that can be positioned on the left or right side under the desk.

It is available in various finishes for customising to your space, the tabletop comes natural or black-stained oak or with a matte lacquered finish, and the metal base in a polished chrome finish or matte varnished in white, black or mud.
