DESCRIPTION

AH701 Outdoor Lounge Sofa by Alfred Homann for Carl Hansen & Son.

Designed by the Danish architect Alfred Homann in 2022, the AH Outdoor series comprises eleven pieces of outdoor furniture united through materiality and a refined design expression.

Homann's signature design style and his penchant for gentle curves are evident in the furniture's handsome design. The wood's joints exhibit a simple yet considered aesthetic, with bars seamlessly blending into the wooden frame.

The spacious bench can seat two people and can be positioned on its own or paired with other furniture from the range.

A seamless blend of clarity, and softness, the furniture embodies a sleek, timeless look crafted from untreated, FSC-certified teak, a hardy wood that patinates gracefully over time. Customise further with optional weather-resistant textile cushions for added comfort.
