DESCRIPTION

AH912 Outdoor Table Bench by Alfred Homann for Carl Hansen & Son.

Designed by the Danish architect Alfred Homann in 2022, the AH Outdoor series comprises eleven pieces of outdoor furniture united through materiality and a refined design expression.

Homann's signature design style and his penchant for gentle curves are evident in the furniture's handsome design. The wood's joints exhibit a simple yet considered aesthetic, with bars seamlessly blending into the wooden frame. A seamless blend of clarity, and softness, the generous and versatile bench can comfortably seat two people and can be positioned on its own or paired with other furniture from the range, such as the dining table.

The range can be further customised with optional weather-resistant textile cushions for added comfort.
