Hans Wegner designed the Opala lighting series in 1973 for Hotel Scandinavia in Copenhagen. The HJW03 Opala Floor Lamp features a tilted opal acrylic shade on top of a minimal chrome-plated stem.

The Opala Floor Lamp radiates a focused, diffused light through the opal shade, gently illuminating the surrounding space. The collection is available in a classic colour palette of black, white and chrome, blending effortlessly into living room and lounge settings.

Demonstrating Wegner's commitment to functionality, the Opala collection's design allows a single lamp shade size to fit all lamps, promoting a more sustainable and material-saving production approach.
