DESCRIPTION

CH104 Sofa by Hans Wegner for Carl Hansen & Son.

The largest seat from the CH100 collection, the CH104 sofa was initially designed as a part of an exclusive office furniture range in 1970. The series, re-introduced in 2008 as a tribute to the 100th anniversary of Carl Hansen & Søn, highlights Hans J. Wegner's expertise in working with shapes and materials.

The inviting sofa is defined by its flat stainless steel frame, seamlessly integrated into the armrests, creating a captivating contrast with the seat upholstery. The sofa's internal wooden frame is padded meticulously, adhering to the highest quality standards, with loose cushions having a stable yet soft composition for added comfort.

The chair works well on its own, in groups, or with the sofas of the range. Also available as an armchair, a two-seater (CH102) or three-seater sofa (CH 103).
