DESCRIPTION

524 Tabouret Berger stool by Charlotte Perriand for Cassina.

Designed by Charlotte Perriand and shown for the first time in Tokyo at the Synthèse des arts exhibition in 1955, the 524 Tabouret Berger is a stylised version of milking stools used by Berger shepherds.

The Tabouret Berger stool provides the utmost comfort whilst being practical and compact, its small profile is easily portable and can be easily stored. It can be used as an occasional stool or an everyday side table, its versatile organic aesthetic adapts to a range of environments, adding a touch of contemporary style to your home.

This stool works well with the higher Meribel stool and can also be used as a small table.

DIMENSIONS

33dia x 26.7cmh

MATERIALS

Featuring three turned legs, the stool comes in three solid wood finishes: natural oak, black-stained oak, natural American walnut.
