

834 Cicognino Side Table

Designer: Franco Albini

Manufacturer: Cassina

~~Was £1,177~~ Now £1,059

DESCRIPTION

834 Cicognino side table by Franco Albini for Cassina.

Designed in 1953, this expressive table is reminiscent of a stalk or swan. One of the three legs extends upwards into a beak-like form serving as a handle for this unique table.

This light and playful design is easily portable thanks to the handle, making this a convenient and flexible small table to have in your home.

The table features a lip around the surface of the table and a groove through which the 'neck' protrudes, that can double as a cable tidy.

DIMENSIONS

38w x 41d x 40/80cmh

MATERIALS

The 834 Cigognino side table is available in American walnut, natural ash or ash stained black.
