

780/783 side tables, 1966

Designer: Gianfranco Frattini

Manufacturer: Cassina

~~Was £2,268~~ Now £1,927

DESCRIPTION

780/783 side tables designed by Gianfranco Frattini for Cassina.

Gianfranco Frattini was born in Padua in 1926 and graduated in architecture at the Milan Polytechnic in 1953, where he remained working right up to his death. His design projects won a large number of prizes.

The 780/783 side tables are a set of four stacking low tables and are available in two different sizes. These occasional tables slot together perfectly into one form, creating a satisfying block that takes up a small amount of space.

These tables can be used combined, separately or arranged together giving them the flexibility to work in any space.

DIMENSIONS

Small 42dia x 38.5cmh

Large 61dia x 43.5cmh

MATERIALS

The 780/783 side tables are made of a beechwood frame in the following finishes: black lacquer or stained walnut. The tables have a reversible plastic laminate top: one side white and one side black.
