DESCRIPTION

381 Torei low tables by Luca Nichetto for Cassina.

The Torei collection of graphic tables was designed in 2012 by Luca Nichetto, a young Venetian architect working in industrial design.

The collection features a range of low tables that includes three different shapes: round, square, triangular, and different materials: natural ash, ash stained black, ash stained red, Carrara white marble, Marquiña black marble and Carnico grey marble.

The base is available in a matt black painted finish or a matt chestnut brown finish.

The versatile range of tables in this collection can be combined in many different iterations to create any aesthetic desired.
