DESCRIPTION

Small Child's Room Rug by Anni Albers for Christopher Farr.

The Small Child's Room rug is a limited edition production of an Anni Albers textile from the 1920s. One of the most influential textile artists of the 20th century, Albers began her weaving career at the Bauhaus, under the tutorship of Gunta Stölzl. She was the first textile artist to be honoured with a show at the Museum of Modern Art and is one of the most well-known weavers today.

Originally designed for a child's room, this tufted rug is a playful geometric piece that will make a statement in any space.

Produced in association with the Josef & Anni Albers Foundation.

Limited edition of 250 rugs.

DIMENSIONS
