DESCRIPTION

CLK 151 Porcelain Mug by Kinto.

Curated in collaboration with craftsman in traditional pottery villages of Japan, the CLK 151 is a fresh interpretation of Japanese tableware for the modern lifestyle. The CLK 151 is a collection of Hasami ware made of sandstone soil belonging to the area, it is made of a mix of Amakusa pottery stone mined in the Amakusa peninsula combining crushed sand and rocks.

Featuring warm textures of clay, it has an organic feel with a contrasting dark semi-matte glaze. The porcelain mug is expressed with these delicate traits and gentle curved forms bringing about a sense of comfort for the user.
