Cuba 25 Three-Seat Sofa by Rodolfo Dordoni for Cappellini.

Designed in 1986, Cappellini's Cuba 25 sofa family is a range of modern, minimalist seats that pay homage to flexibility. The design, which focuses on essentialism, is versatile in that it can be customised in both form and upholstery finish.

The comfortable seats have a robust frame made from metal and wood and generously sized seat cushions and pillows, which are fully removable.

The collection comprises a series of linear elements with removable covers, including two and three-seaters, corner, end and central units and pouffes.

When upholstered in leather, the stitching is rope-coloured.

The pricing shown is for a 3-seat sofa, as shown on the main image. Please view 'More products in the range' for 2 seat version or enquire for further details.
