DESCRIPTION

Post Prandium by Davide Groppi.

Inspired by the shape and function of a ladle, Davide Groppi designed the Post Prandium to 'scoop up light and serve it on a table'.

Minimalist in its form, the table light features a rounded shade, a slender stem, and a slim disc for its base. The lamp is wireless, allowing you to move it around freely and display it without any cables on show.

The Post Prandium was awarded the Archiproducts Design Award 2023.
