

Daystak Side Chair

Designer: Robin Day

Manufacturer: andtradition

£425

DESCRIPTION

Daystak Side Chair RD1 by Robin Day for &Tradition.

Designed for Hille in 1951, Robin Day's Daystak collection, originally named Hillestak, was the designer's first low-cost furniture collection consisting of a stacking chair, table and a desk.

Relaunched by &Tradition in 2024 in partnership with the Robin and Lucienne Day Foundation, the Daysak Chair exemplifies functional utility and an appreciation of simple forms. Demonstrating Day's dedication to craft, the chair conceals its complex construction in a visually minimal form. Featuring the defining A-formation legs of the Daystak collection, the Daystak chair is stackable up to 5 chairs.
