DESCRIPTION

Here Comes The Sun Pendant by Bertrand Balas for DCW éditions.

The Here Comes The Sun pendant lamp was created by Bertrand Balas, a French architect born in 1935.

When it was first released in 1970, Bertrand Balas wanted to call it Here Comes the Sun because of the Beatles song, but he never did as he thought that the Beatles would not let him use the name. This classic ceiling lamp is still collected by many French lighting addicts.

At first sight, this round lamp looks like many other round lamps. But the Here Comes the Sun by Bertand Balas becomes magical when the light is turned on.

Bulb: C111-E14-ESL 11w/ Halo 40w/ LED (not included).
