

Frate Table

Designer: Enzo Mari

Manufacturer: Driade

£3,360

DESCRIPTION

Frate Table by Enzo Mari for Driade.

Designed in 1973, the Frate table features a large glass tabletop, a wooden beam and a solid steel base. Its creator, Enzo Mari, wanted to pay tribute to the simplicity of steel by making a table that showcased the material's rawness, with the transparent top allowing you to see the material from all angles.

The table has remained in production since its conception, earning its place as a timeless piece of design.

Available in six sizes and four handsome beam finishes.
