DESCRIPTION

Catena Modular sofa by Ferm Living.

The embracing, beanbag-inspired shape of our low-slung Catena sofa is The Catena sofa from Ferm Living brings bean-bag style comfort with generously dimensioned sofa modules for quality relaxation and cosiness. The low height sofa is inspired by the catenary curve, a u-like shape that a chain or cable adopts when supported only at its ends, and which is mirrored in the soft curves and top-stitched seams of the Catena sofa.

The microcellular foam ensures durability without compromising comfort. The series features six individual modules which can be combined in different configurations suited to your need.

The sofa is available in six different fabric colours and three pre-configured combinations. Please enquire if you are interested in other configurations.
