DESCRIPTION

Taraxacum 88 light by Achille Castiglioni for Flos.

Based on the original Taraxacum created in 1960, the Taraxacum 88 reflects the iconic design's 1988 update and includes a mixture of deep incandescent lighting and cool, polished aluminium triangles.

Designed by master Achille Castiglioni, this decorative hanging light fixture features 20 pressed and polished aluminium equilateral triangles fitted with electrical sockets. The sockets are filled with 60 clear 25-watt globe lamps, invoking the bloom of a dandelion. The suspension fixture provides direct and reflected incandescent light. The finish is transparent.

An update on the famous 1960s creation by the Castiglioni brothers, Achille Castiglioni designed this piece for "community areas, lobbies and rooms that need a lot of light for special occasions," without sacrificing style and beauty.

Available in two sizes, the suspension fixture providing direct and reflected light.
