The 2097/30 Suspension lamp by Venetian designer Gino Sarfatti is a contemporary take on the classic chandelier.

Designed in 1958, this timeless piece features a central steel structure with 30 bulb holders that evoke flames and brass arms available in chromium-plated, black, or golden finishes.

The steel ceiling fitting and rose complete the contemporary look, while still reminiscent of the traditional chandelier aesthetic. The lamp provides diffused light, making it a perfect centrepiece for any room.
