DESCRIPTION

2097/75 by Gino Sarfatti for Flos.

The 2097/75 Suspension lamp by Gino Sarfatti is a modern version of the traditional chandelier that makes a refined statement to any space.

Initially designed in 1958, this iconic design consists of a central steel structure adorned with 75 flame-shaped bulbs and sleek brass arms. It comes in four finishes: chromium-plated, black, white or brass.

The modern steel ceiling fitting and rose blend traditional chandelier aesthetics with a contemporary look. The lamp emits diffused light, making it an ideal centrepiece for any room.
