DESCRIPTION

Spanish Dining Chair by Børge Mogensen for Fredericia.

In 1958, Børge Mogensen and his family travelled to Spain. In Andalucia, he fell in love with a traditional chair, commonly found within ancient Islamic cultures, with a wide seat and broad armrests. Once back in Denmark, he used this inspiration to create the iconic Spanish Chair.

Mogensen modernised the design, removing the elaborate carvings while applying his customary geometrical precision, achieving a robust chair with exceptional longevity and enduring character.

The Spanish Dining Chair belongs to Mogensen's 1958 collection, composed of the Hunting Chair and Spanish Chair, featuring the same signature solid wood frame, saddle leather and buckle detailing.

Available with or without armrests.
