DESCRIPTION

Series 7 Children's Chair by Arne Jacobsen for Fritz Hansen.

Widely celebrated an icon of design, Arne Jacobsen's Series 7 Chair is now available in scaled-down proportions, making it suitable for us in a child's bedroom, study or classroom.

The original design was launched in 1955 at the H55 design exhibition in Helsinki to address criticism of his earlier design, the Ant Chair. Jacobsen gave the Series 7 a bigger seat with four legs and optional armrests in response.

The children's chair can be stacked with up to ten seats and is available in two fun, muted colours and a classic Oregon pine.

Please note there is a minimum order quantity of 2 of the same finish.
