

PK71 nesting table, 1957

Designer: Poul Kjaerholm

Manufacturer: Fritz Hansen

£1,947

DESCRIPTION

PK71 nesting table by Poul Kjaerholm for Fritz Hansen

The PK71 was designed by Poul Kjaerholm in 1957 and consists of three nesting tables that can be stored underneath each other.

With the PK71 and their ongoing three-dimensional shape, Poul Kjaerholm was showing the square in all three dimensions in his work for the first time. They can be seen as a precursor to his larger and more complex tables and are part of the permanent collection at the Museum of Modern Art in New York.

DIMENSIONS

Large table - 28w x 28d x 28.5cmh

Medium table - 26.5w x 26.5d x 27cmh

Small table - 25w d 25w x 25.5cmh

MATERIALS

The PK71 nesting tables have a tabletop in either black or white acrylic and a base in satin-brushed stainless steel.
