DESCRIPTION

Fronzoni '64 bed by A.G. Fronzoni for Cappellini.

Cappellini's Fronzoni bed is a conceptual furnishing piece, true to the style of A. G. Fronzoni. Designed in 1964, the bed is a straightforward and fundamental meeting of straight lines with spatial planes. The structure is made entirely of squared tubular metal and has been reduced to the essentials - the traditional headboard has been omitted, providing a clean, minimalist aesthetic.

The graphic frame is complete with wooden bed slats and is available in three sizes and two finishes; matte lacquered white or black. The collection also includes a dining chair and a table.

Please note: price does not include mattress.
