DESCRIPTION

Fronzoni '64 chair by A.G. Fronzoni for Cappellini.

A timeless chair originally designed in 1964, the Fronzoni chair is part of the minimal Fronzoni '64 collection. Created by A. G. Fronzoni, the Italian designer's primary source of inspiration was geometry.

With a desire to eradicate all excessive components from design objects, Fronzoni's design can be considered a conceptual furnishing piece. Comprising an arrangement of squares and straight lines, joint together at right angles, the fundamentalism of the seat makes it well-suited and adaptable to every setting.

The graphic frame is available in two contemporary finishes; white or black.

The collection also includes a table and bed.
