DESCRIPTION

Stemlite pendant by William Edwin Curry for Gubi.

Minimalist, futuristic and practical, the Stemlite pendant is the latest addition to the Stemlite collection. The Stemlite collection developed by American designer William 'Bill' Edwin Curry during the heights of the space race was an innovative rethinking of the traditional lamps and have become design icons. The pendant produces a mild glow suitable for both contemporary and traditional interior.

The new pendant flips the original design upside-down and features a simple, slender stem with hidden stabilizing counterweights. The stem is available in Black Chrome, Red Black or Pebble Grey finish.
