

62 series dresser 3, 1952

Designer: Greta Grossman

Manufacturer: Gubi

£3,499

DESCRIPTION

62 series dresser 3 by Greta Grossman for Gubi.

Greta Grossman (1906-1999) was a relatively unknown and almost forgotten designer until her designs were rediscovered and reproduced by Gubi.

Grossman was highly influenced by European Modernism and she played a significant role in defining the aesthetic of mid-century Californian Modernism.

Today, Grossman's designs are highly collectable and are sold at auctions all around the world.

Designed in 1952 and named "the 62-series" because they were deemed to be ten years ahead of their time. The slim metal legs with the small solid wood ball feet are a contrast to the sharp rectangular shapes, giving the furniture an appearance of lightness, the pieces almost seeming to defy gravity.

DIMENSIONS

120w x 45d x 72cmh

MATERIALS

It is made in American walnut, legs in powder-coated metal and a deep, black, full gloss finish on the top plates and doors.

Contains 3 walnut drawers and cabinet door in Black high gloss.
