DESCRIPTION

Timberline floor lamp by Mads Caprani for Gubi.

Timberline floor lamp combines a fun expression with an organic form factor and juxtaposition of natural materials. Great as a sculptural feature in any modern interior, the floor lamp features natural materials such as oak, birch, canvas, and cast iron - blended beautifully in a neutral colour palette to compliment any modern interior.

Designed in the 1970s by Mads Caprani, the design was a game-changer and quickly became an international sensation. The unique features such as the inset cord and adjustable direction shade showcase Caprani's attention to quality and detail.
