DESCRIPTION

9205 Table Lamp by Paavo Tynell for Gubi.

Paavo Tynell, one of the esteemed industrial designers and metal craftsmen of the 20th century, emerged during an era ripe for pioneering modern lighting. As the electric light revolutionized the world, so did Tynell's innovative designs.

First produced around 1950, the 9205 stands as a classic and iconic table lamp embodying the distinctive Tynell aesthetic. Despite its elegant and slender appearance, this lamp harbours an exceptional level of craftsmanship and meticulous hand-making.

The canvas shade variant involves affixing fabric to a liner, which is then meticulously attached to a wire frame. In contrast, the bamboo version comprises slats meticulously sewn together by hand to form a pleated mat before being integrated into the liner and frame, offering a contemporary twist to the original ryegrass cane design.
