Manufacturer: Gubi

DESCRIPTION

Pacha lounge chair by Pierre Paulin for Gubi.

The inviting Pacha lounge chair was originally designed by Pierre Paulin in 1975, and it replaced the austerity of post-war design with a more organic and curvaceous approach.

The Pacha lounge chair has a generously rounded outline and perfectly considered proportions, offering high levels of comfort. With pieces like Pacha, Paulin was an advocate of low-level living by getting rid of chair legs and Pacha is only slightly raised off the ground by means of a small base.

Pierre Paulin (b.1927) studied at Ecole Camondo Design School in Paris and thereafter joined Marcel Gasoin's studio. His own work was recognised at the Salon des Arts Menagers exhibition in 1953 and he began a longstanding association with Dutch firm Artifort. His designs for Artifort were strong expressions in form using new textiles and foam technology.

Quickship is available for the following: 2-4 weeks for Fabric Group 5 Black swivel base in Karakorum 001 ivory or Pearl gold swivel base in Karakorum 001 ivory. Also available in Sheepskin, please enquire for more details.
