DESCRIPTION

Rey stool by Bruno Rey for HAY.

The Rey stool is the result of a collaboration between HAY and the renowned Swiss manufacturer Dietiker. Originally designed by Bruno Rey in 1971, the Rey collection of chairs, stools and tables is unified by its iconic silhouette.

The stackable Rey stool has an elegant silhouette which balances lightness, strength, and functionality. The minimal, yet unique design features angled legs that balance the distinctively rounded edges. Designed with resilience and flexible properties, it features Dietiker's innovative screw-less wood-to-metal connection.

Available in original colours, as well as new tones to accommodate contemporary lifestyle requirements, the Rey stool is effortlessly adaptable to public and private spaces.
